8. Credit reference and fraud prevention agencies

Watts Commercial Finance and/or Lenders may obtain information about you from credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies to check your credit status and identity. The agencies will record Watts Commercial Finance / Lender enquiries which may be seen by other companies who make their own credit enquiries. Lenders may use credit scoring.

Your information may be linked to, and your application assessed using credit reference agency records relating to anyone with whom you have a joint account or similar financial association.

- Lenders will check your details with fraud prevention agencies.
- If you provide false or inaccurate information and they suspect fraud, they will record this.
- Lenders and other organisations may use these records to:
 - Help make decisions about credit and credit related services for you and members of your household;
 - Help make decisions on motor, household, credit, life and other insurance proposals and insurance claims, for you and members of your household;
 - Trace debtors, recover debt, prevent fraud, and to manage your accounts or insurance policies;
 - Check your identity to prevent money laundering, unless you furnish them with satisfactory proof of identity.
